

Multi-screen networked controller

Universal visualization platform

Click here for larger picture

Barco's universal visualization platform consists of:

- Barco's control room management software
- A networked hardware platform, including a wide range of optional chassis and display controllers.