

Plugins

Software tools for content distribution, visualization and interaction

DISplay Studio offers the entire solution, from content creation tools over content distribution and visualization to content interaction. Our content management system can be operated and used by many different users inside and/or outside the organization. The software allows customers to run different contents automatically while keeping full control of different playlists at all times.