

I600 flight case

Flight case for I600 in adjustable rigging frame (frame not included)

The I600 flight case is designed to transport the I600 in a safe and secure manner. There is also sufficient space in the flight case to place the projector while mounted in the I600 rigging frame. The four castor wheels, provided with breaks, and the handles make the I600 flight case easy to handle.

Available soon.
