

Powerwalls

Straight projection surfaces for versatile use

Barco's powerwalls are custom-built straight projection surfaces that give the users full control over their VR-content. Used in many markets, including Automotive and Oil & Gas, powerwalls allow to display both 2D and 3D images on the wall simultaneously, from many different sources.

Offering a wide range of projectors and screens, Barco's powerwalls fully answer the requirements of the customers.