

Barco Optix Cinemascope

The Barco Optix Cinemascope projector takes the exceptional 2.37:1 native DLP chipset used in the Barco Orion Cinemascope to the next level. This higher resolution required our optical engineers to develop all new optics and lenses, custom designed with aspherical glass elements and enhanced low dispersion glass for the highest possible image quality, increased contrast, improved color saturation and, above all, excellent sharpness.