

ClickShare extended warranty

Safeguarding the ClickShare investment

The average meeting room gets refurbished every 5 years. In order for customers to safeguard their investment, Barco offers the possibility to extend the standard 3-year ClickShare warranty by another 2 years. In this way customers have full warranty on their ClickShare units throughout the expected meeting room lifetime.

How to order via Purchase Order (PO)?

For large projects, extended warranty for ClickShare can simply be ordered via purchase order through your distributor. Contact your distributor for more information.

Why choose Extended warranty for ClickShare?

- Avoid high hardware replacement costs and safeguard your investment
- Advance replacement of defective units
- Next business day shipment of replacement units
- Local business hours helpdesk support