

Poly and Barco ClickShare Solutions

Radical simplicity and wireless conferencing for all your meeting spaces

Command the hybrid conversation

With Poly Studio USB and Studio X all-in-one Appliance video bars, enabled with Poly Director AI group framing and automatic speaker tracking, you are ready to tackle your most critical conversations. Awesome video and audio means Poly gives everyone the opportunity to shine, in any type of meeting, be it a boardroom brainstorm, a coffee corner conversation or a quick catchup in a huddle space. Poly outfits your office space and your personal space with the gear you need to look and sound your best. So you can get to work focused, confident and clear.

With ClickShare Conference you enable simple, better hybrid meeting and accommodate the increasing need for BYOM (Bring Your Own Meeting) in the workplace. Walk in, ClickShare automatically and wirelessly connects your laptop to the Poly in the room. Smart meeting flows guide you to intuitive, stress-free video meetings and/or easy content sharing. Get started within seconds. No cables, no mess, no time to waste. Ensuring everyone is seen & heard, whether people are right there in the room or joining remotely.
