

Pulse Prospector

On-site projector tool straight from your browser

Running in a web browser, the comprehensive and intuitive Pulse Prospector tool get projectionists through the set-up of complex single-channel installations with maximum control.

It offers a full overview of all the features you find inside the projector for quick and simple configuration and calibration of Pulse projectors.

The tool is available free-of-charge publicly.