

Barco Prometheus II

Barco Prometheus II brings Barco's outstanding image quality to the world's largest home cinema screens.

A 7 kilowatt xenon lamp is aligned with exacting precision and focused through one of the finest optical engines ever conceived. Three 4K DLP chip modules are hand aligned to perfection at the point of installation using our unique analog convergence system. A stunning custom-designed high contrast lens helps to deliver an unprecedented immersive experience in the home.

DynamicPDF